An Exploration of Afro-Amerindian Heritage

Tuesday, February 6, 2018

2:00pm - 4:00pm

Sturgis Library Room 101
Kennesaw Campus

By Any Other Name is a film centered on the interactions between Africans and Native Americans in the United States.

In honor of Black History Month, come learn about the often understated and intertwined histories of the African and Native American Diasporas by viewing this award winning documentary.

I'd take the position that when I dehumanize, it is because I dehumanize myself. It is because I misuse my humanity. - Mattie L. Humphrey
