

The Thinker

Six library system staff were recently honored for milestone years of service to Kennesaw State University. Left to right: Ashley Dupuy (5 years), Amy Thompson (15 years), Rita Spisak (30 years), Dianne Bridges (30 years), Li Chen (15 years), and Ariel Turner (5 years). Congratulations!

We are one! Starting Jan 8th all of the KSU library Facebook and Twitter pages will be joined into consolidated sites. Please find us at these pages: www.facebook.com/KennesawStateLibraries and twitter.com/KSULibraries.

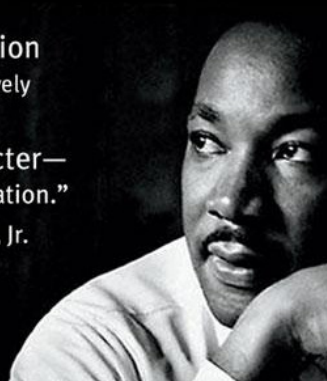

UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH AWARD

Have you done research this year that you're proud of?
Do you want to win $500 and get published?

Submit your research to the Kennesaw Journal of Undergraduate Research, and add a brief essay describing your research process.

Submissions will be peer-reviewed for publication and the Kennesaw State University Library System will award an outstanding undergraduate researcher with $500 during the Symposium of Student Scholars in April for highlighting library resources in a supplemental essay.

For more information, check out the Undergraduate Research Award page:

"The function of education is to teach one to think intensively and to think critically. Intelligence plus character—that is the goal of true education."
— Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

All library system libraries and the university campus will be closed January 18th, 2016 in observance of the Martin Luther King Holiday.

*"It snowed and snowed, the whole world over,
Snow swept the world from end to end.
A candle burned on the table;
A candle burned."* — Boris Pasternak, Dr. Zhivago

The KSU Library System is pleased to welcome Barbara Wood as our new Graduate Librarian for the Wellstar College of Health and Human Services. Barbara comes to us from the University of Miami where she worked as Education Librarian in the school of medicine for the past four years. Prior to that, Barbara served as the Public Services librarian for six years at the University of South Florida College of Medicine. Fun facts... Barbara loves cats (she has two, Coco and Kendall), visiting libraries when on vacation, and her favorite novel is Dr. Zhivago.
